Lack of Official News Causes Apprehension in St. Petersburg.

Petersburg.

ST. PETERSBURG, October 13-2:20
A. M.—No official news of to-day's battle south of Mukden is available at this hour. General Kuropatkin doubtless has communicated his regular report to Emperor Nicholas at Tsarkee Selo, but the dispatch was not sont back to the general staff to-night. So the latest word from Russian sources is contained in the Associated Press dispatch from Mukden. As is natural, the absence of official news is pessimistically interpreted in many quarters; but the general staff, though reticent, counsels pattence, pointing out that the offensive movement was planned upon a large scale, and has not yet reached a stage where a decisive result could have been attained. The frontal attack on the Yental mines developed a desperate battle, in which probably 100,000 men are engaged, but though the dispatches so far deal almost exclusively with this feature of the Eattle, it is pointed out that there is a much wider field involved.

While it is now asserted that General Kuropatkin enjoys a considerable numerical superiority, the main fear expressed is that this superiority is insufficient to enable him to carry out the big operations he has undertaken.

After an all-day's fight above Yental, where the Russians systained their first check, the Japanese still held that position. The infantry practically was not engaged, the artillery bearing the brunt of the fighting. The Japanese stuck to their guns and the Russian batteries were unable to dislodge them.

sonic Temple Last Night.

The "Blue Ledge Room" at the Masonic Tomple last night was the scene of one of the pretitest weddings of the season, when Miss Esther Lewit, daughter of Mr. Max Schwarz, of Brooklyn, N. Y. The room was handsoniely decorated with paims and white chrysanthemums, and Thilow's orchestra, stationed behind a bank of paims, rendered the wedding march. The bride entered with her father, accompanied by her maid of honor, Miss Nettle Bottlingheimer. The party were med at the improvised altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Julius Schwarz, a brother of the groom. Rabbi Edward N. Callsch performed the ceremony.

The bride was attired in a rich gown with imported lace robe, and her veil was caught with a diamond mercury wing. The bride carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The ushers, Messrs, Simon Stern, William Weinfield, Manily Bottingheimer and Simon Bowman, wore the conventional evening dress, with chrysanthemums as boutonniers.

Minister Denies Absolutely That There Is Friction Between Himself and Walker.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 12.-Members of the Panama Canal Commisdon, now in the city, called to-day by short time afterward Hon, John Barrett. ference with the President

The commission discussed conditions or the Isthmus, which have arisen since the acquisition by this country of the Americommission and the government of Pan-uma. What, if any, conclusions were reached to these differences was not disclosed.

Progress of Work.

The commissioners left with the President a memorandum, giving in considerable detail the work accomplished and in hand on the Isthmus. It shows that there are now between two and three hundred engineers and others sent from the United States engaged in the engineering and construction work, and upon sewerage and water supply, with a force of from and water supply, with a force of from 1,000 to 1,200 laborers. This does not in-clude the sanitary force, nor the force of the governor of the zone, nor the per-sonnel of the material and supply department.

Surveying parties are at work in the vicinity of Colon, making plans and estimates for an inner harbor, and also for the work to be done in the outer bay.
At Bohlo the surveyors are making detailed surveys and studies, and investigating the various dam sites that have been proposed in that locality.

An engineering corps along the main line of the canal in the vicinity of Culebra is making surveys to determine the feasibility of straightening the line of the French company. Another engineering force is constructing a reservoir in the valley of the upper Rio Grande, which will furnish a minimum supply of two million gallons of water in a day for the city of Panama; also a distributing reservoir for the city of Panama at Ancon. It is also making surveys and estimates for a sewerage system for Colon, and plans are being prepared for the construction of a harbor there.

The commission has purchased so far three modern steam shovels and opened.

Minister Barrett made an absolute denial of the alleged friction between himself and the Isthmian Canal Commission, of which Admiral Walker is the head.

Mr. Barrett says:
"On the contrary, my relations with Admiral Walker and the rest of the commission have always been so agreeable that it is even possible that such relationship may have been interpreted as unreal and a cleak to cover distrust. We may have had healthy and legitimate local wires are burdened to the exclusion

$40,600 and $50,000 is transferred from the bank accounts of the buyers in those of the selling graziers. Clouds of dust in every direction mark the movements of the many "b'unches" of export steers for whose shipment this day has been fixed and the clamor and bustle attending the weighing, assorting, loading and setuling for them is a wonder to the stranger who never saw the business conducted before. Uling for them is a women to the wite never saw the business conducted before.

All this shipment is for export, the average weight being over 1,500.

One carload, furnished by Dr. W. H. Bramblett, averaged 150.

Of to-day's shipment, is carloads are by R. H. Glendy for W. L. Stinson, of Ohlog 12 by Elenstein and Harman for the S. & S. Company, New York, and 7 by John Crockett for Lehman, of Baltimore.

For the week ending to-day, Einstein and Harman, for the S. & S. Company, have Shipped of carloads of export cattle, averaging 1,550 pointds, and of these shows 50 cars were shipped from this point.

Large numbers still await shipment, and the fearful drought has so burned up the pastures that the graziers are all anxious to see their cattle off.
